FOUNDATION ♦ ADVISORY GROUP ♦ EDUCATION & OUTREACH

Tough Choices. Inspired Commitment. Real Results.

Carly Fiorina Enterprises is focused on global economic development and grassroots individual empowerment. Its operating premise is that the most creative and collaborative solutions come from cross-sector initiatives that bring business, government and philanthropic leaders together. Its key areas of emphasis include economic growth for a more prosperous and secure world; economic empowerment for women in poverty plagued societies; education and outreach for more inspired leadership; and, public commentary on topics that can promote engagement on these opportunities.

FIORINA GROUP

Bringing global experience and business acumen, Fiorina provides non- compensatory advisory services to government agencies, not-for-profits, and businesses which collaborate on greater effectiveness in achieving security, prosperity and individual empowerment through economic development. Active initiatives include those underway at the State Department, Department of Defense, and the Initiative for Global Development.

FIORINA EDUCATION AND OUTREACH

Ms. Fiorina devotes much of her time to public speaking and commentary appearing in numerous, international public and private forums. Her topics cover the gamut of politics, business, leadership and culture. A current focus is her role as Victory '08 Chair in support of Senator John McCain for President and the Republican National Committee. Her book, Tough Choices, offers her thoughts on career and business ethics in the context of her own high profile career.

FIORINA FOUNDATION

The Foundation selectively supports key initiatives with seed levels of investment underscoring CFE's commitment to collaborative solutions. The intent is to set the example, prove a premise and pave the way for gifts large and small to flow to initiatives with potential for measurable return. CFE enables corporations, social entrepreneurs and philanthropists alike to address some of the world's most challenging issues rooted in the existence of extreme poverty and inequality. Active initiatives include the African Leadership Academy, The One Woman Initiative, and Grameen America.
